

CURRICULUM VITAE

Name: Kazuaki Kubo
Current Position: Director General, The Japan Foundation, New York
Director, The Japan Foundation Center for Global Partnership,
New York
Regional Director for the Americas, The Japan Foundation
Date of Birth: December 17, 1947

Education

1970–71 University of Washington, U.S.A.
1973 Graduated from Tokyo University of Foreign Studies, Department of English and American Studies

Career

April 1973 Entered the Japan Foundation
August 1975 Director, The Japan Foundation São Paulo Office
June 1986 Cultural Attaché (Second Secretary), Embassy of Japan in Korea
May 1987 Cultural Attaché (First Secretary), Embassy of Japan in Korea
April 1990 Director, Exhibition Division, Arts Dept, The Japan Foundation
April 1993 Director, The Japan Foundation ASEAN Center
October 1995 Director, Intellectual Exchange Division, The Japan Foundation
Asia Center
December 1996 Director, Planning Division, The Japan Foundation Center for Global Partnership
January 1999 Managing Director, The Japan Foundation Center for Global Partnership
January 2001 Director General, Japan Cultural Center, Seoul (The Japan Foundation)
May 2004 Managing Director, Financial and Accounting Department, The Japan Foundation
January 2007 Special Assistant to the President, The Japan Foundation
August 2007 Consul General of Japan at Denver
April 2011 Director General, The Japan Foundation, New York